

Informal Evening Concert 11/12/2021 - Program

Enjoy a relaxed, informal evening concert at Ananda Temple in Palo Alto (our first indoor concert in 18 months!). (Program below)

Soloists who are just spreading their wings perform, as well as more experienced singers. A fun and expansive evening of music, as well as some serious inner work — as performance has a way of moving us past ego into a greater flow. All of this beautiful music is composed by Swami Kriyananda. You'll hear solos and duets that remind us we are all children of God, living life for a joyful purpose. Immerse in these songs of Divine Joy—simple, heartfelt expressions of spiritual aspiration and a desire for a more meaningful way of life.
